WHAT: Adventure Island today opened the park's newest and highly anticipated attraction, Castaway Falls, which promises guests an unforgettable experience with over 100 interactive elements, including two massive tipping buckets that unleash a torrential downpour of more than 1,300 gallons of water combined.

Set within a tropical paradise, Castaway Falls invites guests of all ages to immerse themselves in a watery world of excitement. Castaway Falls is the centerpiece of Adventure Island's comprehensive revitalization, which includes recent additions such as Shaka-Laka Shores, Rapids Racer, Wahoo Remix slides, and the transformed Captain Pete's and Hang Ten Tiki Bar. These enhancements create a refreshed atmosphere, complete with new lounging areas and cabanas, providing visitors with the ultimate tropical retreat.

WHEN: Castaway Falls is now open at Adventure Island.

WHERE: Adventure Island, Tampa, Fla.

ABOUT: Located right across the street from Busch Gardens® Tampa Bay, Adventure Island® is Tampa Bay's premier water park, featuring a combination of exhilarating water slides and tropical, tranquil surroundings. At Tampa's Island Paradise, thrilling slides await, such as Rapids Racer, Wahoo Remix, Solar Vortex®, Vanish Point™, Caribbean Corkscrew® and Colossal Curl™, waterfalls, a 17,000-square-foot wave pool, a children's splash and play zone, Shaka-Laka Shores, and other family attractions including the all-new Castaway Falls. Guests can dig their toes into the sand or relax in lounge chairs or a private cabana. For more information, visit AdventureIsland.com for more information.
